Richie Varrasso's new band of still famous people.

FAMOUS HITS BAND

This is my band. Everyone in my band is more famous than me. They are all very accomplished musicians and only tolerate me! In the music business, I am a promoter, producer, publicist, publisher, manager, writer, then I am a musician. But by virtue of me standing next to Jimmy Lyon and Ronnie Montrose for years, I learned to play guitar. And by hanging around Greg Kihn and Eddie Money gig after gig, I morphed into a performer. So with a "if they can do it- I can do it" attitude I formed my own band. We've played every rock club in the state of California. We have played Fairs, Festivals and for motorcycle clubs. We want you to love, dance, laugh, sing, jump for joy and drink to be happy. And that's just the kind of audience we want!
